AT THE WHITE HOUSE

MISS ALICE LEE ROOSEVELT AND NICHOLAS LONGWORTH ARE MARRIED.

EVENT IS VERY BRILLIANT

ABOUT ONE THOUSAND INVITED GUESTS WITNESS THE WEDDING CEREMONY.

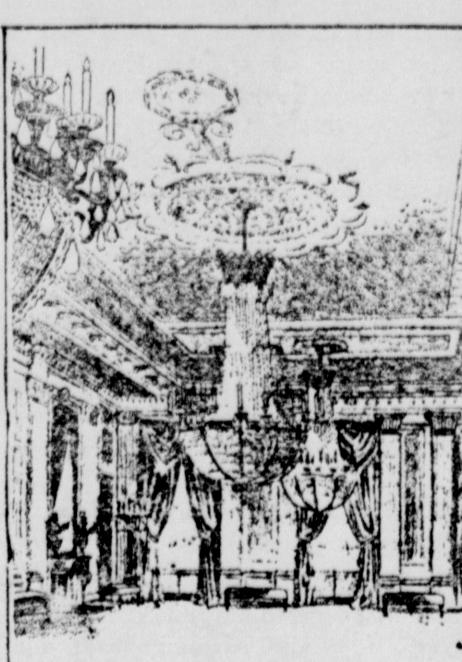

Washington, Feb. 17.—In the east room of the White House at high noon Miss Alice Lee Roosevelt, daughter of the president, and Representative Nicholas Longworth of the First congressional district of Ohio, were united in marriage. The historic room in which the ceremony was performed and which has been the scene of many brilliant events, was decorated more elaborately than upon any previous occasion, yet with extreme taste.

The ceremony, performed by the Right Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, bishop of Washington of the Protestant Episcopal church, was the beautiful church. It was attended with all the magnificence of an official function and with all the devotional beauty of a cathedral service. According to all accounts, Miss Roosevelt was the EAST ROOM, SCENE OF THE CEREMONY.

At noon Miss Roosevelt, escorted by the president, and preceded by the ushers, entered the east room, while the Marine band played the wedding march from Tannhauser. Miss Roosevelt was exquisitely gowned and wore as her only ornament the diamond necklace presented by the groom. In her left hand she carried a bridal bouquet of rare orchids.

Through the ranks of the ushers the president and his daughter proceeded to the platform, where the president presented his daughter to the waiting bridegroom. The two then ascended the platform together and Bishop Satterlee, after the president had placed the hand of the bride in that of the groom, pronounced the words that made Alice Lee Roosevelt Mrs. Nicholas Longworth.

As soon as the wedding ceremony was concluded the guests were received by the newly wedded couple on the platform. They were showered with congratulations.

The guests were then received in the blue room by President and Mrs. Roosevelt. Afterward the bridal breakfast was served, in buffet form, in the state and private dining rooms—and the greatest social event in Washington had passed into history.

CRISIS IN RUSSIAN CABINET.

Either Count Witte or Minister Durnovo Must Resign.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 17.—Information has reached the Associated Press that the desperate struggle which has been raging in the government between the reactionary and the progressive forces is approaching a culmination and must end within a few days with the resignation of Minister of the Interior Durnovo, who is leading the movement for thorough going repression, or of Premier Witte and several other members of the cabinet.

The question at issue is the withdrawal of the extraordinary powers confided in governor generals, which in many cases, it is alleged, have been exercised for the repression not only of political disorders, but also of the political activity of the parties. The discussion has reached such an acute and passionate stage in the cabinet that no other issue than the fall of one faction or the other is possible. The chances of victory incline to the side of Count Witte.

ARMOUR ON THE STAND.

Noted Packer Testifies in Beef Trust Case.

Chicago, Feb. 17.—The three leading officials of Armour & Co. were on the stand during the day in the packers' case. J. Ogden Armour, the president of the company, took the stand late in the day, but his evidence was not important. He simply declared that the looks of Armour & Co. were given to the government officials for inspection on his order, and said that he acted in pursuance of legal advice when he directed that the government be allowed to inspect them. The other witnesses were Arthur Meeker, general superintendent of the company, and T. J. Conners, the general manager of the beef department of the business. Their testimony was much in the line of that given by Mr. Armour. District Attorney Morrison tried to prove by Mr. Meeker that he had altered some figures which had been given by Armour & Co. to the government agents, but did not succeed in establishing the fact. He declared that he would do it at a later time, however.

twelfth White House bride, just escaping the unlucky number thirteen.

The guests entered at the east terrace and passed up the main staircase to the east room.

Nellie Grant Sartoris, the most noted White House bride of former times, with the possible exception of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, was a guest at the wedding.

There were about 1,000 invited guests, mostly personal friends of the bride and groom and cabinet officials and their wives.

The wedding presents were many and expensive, coming from all parts of the world.

At the great center windows, directly opposite the main entrance of the room, in a superb floral bower, was a

PREPARING FOR TROUBLE.

Russia Getting Ready for War With China.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 17.—In view of recent events in China, the Russian government, like that of the United States, has found it advisable to take the necessary military measures to be prepared for all eventualities. Though the foreign office officially scouts the alarmist tone of the Russian press and declared that no news had been received to excite apprehension, the council for national defense, which has been preparing to reduce the force in the far East to a minimum, takes a more serious view of the situation and is revising its plans for the evacuation of the armies in Manchuria in order to retain there a force "sufficient to maintain Russia's special interests on a plane with the other powers."

Several amendments were suggested providing for both inclusion and exclusion of express companies and proprietary cars under the bill, but no action was taken. Senator Foster desires that express companies shall be included and gave notice that he would call for a vote on such an amendment at the next meeting of the committee. There were also a number of amendments offered to Section 1 of the Hepburn bill on the subject of what is known as joint routes.

No amendment was offered pertaining to the court features affecting rates fixed by the commission. It has been said that Senator Knox will prepare an amendment on that subject acceptable to the president, but this rumor could not be confirmed.

Senator Spooner has a plan relating to the adjustment of differences between the interstate commerce commission and common carriers respecting rates, but he is not ready to make the details public.

Both Republican factions express the belief that Attorney General Moody is the president's chief adviser on the subject of rate legislation and that he is opposed to any amendments looking to the retrial of any case after the commission has investigated a rate and changed it.

According to the Slovo, the government is in possession of information to the effect that China is making war preparations in which she is supported almost openly by Japan and that an attack on Russia's Ussuri possessions is feared. Fears, the Slovo says, are also entertained because of the Chinese designs to overthrow the Russian influence in Chinese Turkestan that has grown up in consequence of the special trade and military arrangements instituted before the breaking out of the Russo-Japanese war.

HORACE TAYLOR RESIGNS.

John H. Edwards of Ohio to Be Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Horace A. Taylor, assistant secretary of the treasury, during the day tendered to the president his resignation to take effect June 30, 1906. It was accepted. The president assured Mr. Taylor that he fully appreciated the very "efficient service" he had rendered since he became assistant secretary at the beginning of Mr. McKinley's first term and said he had hoped he would remain in his position until the close of the present presidential term. Mr. Taylor, however, explained that he had for a long time contemplated an European trip which would occupy a year and possibly two years and had decided to sail during the coming summer.

Secretary Shaw accompanied Mr. Taylor to the White House and both joined in recommending the appointment of John H. Edwards of Ohio as Mr. Taylor's successor. The president promptly accepted the suggestion and announced the appointment would be made.

Mr. Edwards for over two years has occupied the position of secretary to Secretary Shaw and his promotion is a recognition of his services. Mr. Edwards was born in South Charleston, O., and is thirty years of age.

Denver Auctioneer Killed.

Denver, Feb. 17.—Morris Caplin, who operates an auction business here, was murdered in the diningroom of his home at night by a masked man who entered for the purpose of robbery. When Caplin emptied his pockets and his wife had turned over all the money she had the robber ordered Caplin to give him the money he derived from the day's business. Caplin reached under the table, evidently for a stool to throw at the man, when the robber shot Caplin in the heart, killing him instantly. The robber escaped.

McCall Gaining Some Strength.

Lakewood, N. J., Feb. 17.—Late at night it was said Mr. McCall seemed to be gaining some strength. It is realized, however, that the present weak condition of the patient will make it difficult for him to withstand further sinking spells.

One Dead and Two Dying.

Plainview, Mich., Feb. 17.—Chapel Flower, a car repairer, was killed during the day, his wife apparently dying from shock, and Charles H. Fairchild was probably fatally injured as the result of a caboose striking the railroad velocipede on which the three were riding.

Without disposing of the judicial feature of the bill the committee considered many amendments of the bill.

Senator Carmack, who has been absent from former deliberations this week, offered an amendment increasing the interstate commerce commission from 5 to 9 members. This amendment was adopted by a vote of 6 to 5, as follows:

Affirmative—Aldrich, Elkins, Kean, Carmack, Foster and Crane.

Negative—Foraker, Clapp, McLaurin and Newlands.

It was agreed, however, that Messrs. Cullom and Tillman may have their votes recorded on this amend-

ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY

At the meeting of the Municipal Ownership League at the Trades and Labor Assembly last night Hon. John T. Frater, to the great satisfaction of his numerous friends and admirers, announced his candidacy for re-election as state senator. The announcement came at the conclusion of a statement by Senator Frater concerning his efforts in getting through the legislature a bill to empower the city to issue bonds to purchase or build a water works system. An attempt has been made, falsely, of course, to blame Senator Frater, for the failure of this bill, which he got through both houses of the legislature and it only failed to become a law because the governor did not sign it. An intimation was made that it was the senator's fault, and he took the floor and in ringing sentences which carried conviction to every hearer he showed how he faithfully labored for his constituents and success crowned his efforts in the legislature branch, and then Mr. Frater announced with deep feeling he would be a candidate again, and asked for a vindication against the false aspersions attempted to be cast on him by interested parties, and the ringing cheers with which his announcement was greeted told of the confidence all have in his integrity.

Certainly Senator Frater deserves the endorsement of a re-election at the hands of the people of this district, for if ever a man held a legislative position, who thought only of the interests of his constituents, who labored earnestly early and late in their behalf, and whose honor and integrity were above the slightest suspicion, certainly that man is Senator Frater, and the people of this district feel this, and thoroughly believe in him, and will triumphantly nominate him at the primaries and re-elect him. He believes in municipal ownership, and the friends of municipal ownership

YOUNG JUROR'S WORK.

MILLIONAIRE'S SON TAUGHT ONE JUROR TO READ, OTHERS WRESTLING.

William N. Frew, Jr., son of the millionaire lawyer and protege of Andrew Carnegie, recently sat as a juror in the case of Norman H. Geyser, charged with the murder of Mrs. Martha Kirkpatrick, says a Pittsburg special dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer. Young Frew, who is just out of college, served for the first time as a juror. The first case that he was accepted for was the murder case, which proved to be the longest of any ever tried in the Pittsburg court. The jury was out eleven days.

The first night young Frew discovered that one of his fellow jurors, a farmer from Snowdon township, could neither read nor write. He set about the task of teaching the farmer his letters and when the trial was over was gratified to find that the man could write his own and other people's names and could make a fair stagger at reading.

The night school business went all right for a short time, but then the jurors began to suffer from lack of exercise. Young Frew is a fine athlete and knows more about boxing and Japanese wrestling than many professionals. So a wrestling mat was made of several mattresses. The jurors all know more about boxing and wrestling today than they did before. Young Frew also introduced foot racing around the room and other physical culture diversions until the men got all the exercise they needed and had appetites which cost the county $580 for meals.

In exchange for all this young Frew was amply repaid by at least one of the jurors, who was a barber. Frew could not shave himself, and the barber juror consented to perform the task each morning before breakfast. During the eleven days' confinement he also gave young Frew, as well as several others, an up to date haircut.

The Jurymen declare that they never had a finer companion than the millionaire's son. Young Frew, who is a serious sort of chap, says that he was very much interested in the work.

UNCLE JOE'S GALLUSES.

Why Speaker Cannon Decided to Preserve Them For Posterity.

The home knit galluses recently given to Speaker Cannon by W. W. Russell of South Carolina, through Representative Aiken, are to be handed down to posterity unworn by the distinguished statesman for whom they were made, says the Washington correspondent of the Kansas City Times. The speaker prizes them too highly to wear them. He has written a letter to Mr. Russell acknowledging the gift, in which he says:

"In material and in name I recognize them from my familiarity with them in the early days when home-spun galluses were the order, made and knit by our mothers and in almost universal use.

"I shall put the galluses in my cabinet rather than wear them, because I desire to preserve them for my grandchildren, that they may see what we wore in my early days."

BOY'S POULTRY VENTURE.

Mother Furnishes the Capital For Emmons Blaine's Egg Concern.

Emmons Blaine, the fourteen-year-old grandson of the late James G. Blaine, has made his advent into business with this advertisement in his school paper, says a Chicago dispatch:

EMMONS BLAINE & CO., Elmhurst, Ill.
Dealers in Strictly Fresh Eggs. Every egg guaranteed. Orders must be sent in advance. Phone Elmhurst-6.

"I wonder if those chickens have laid enough eggs this week to fill these orders," he recently remarked to a friend. "I told mamma to feed them extra well, because since I have advertised our business I have more orders."

"Who is 'we?'" was asked. "I've got a good partner, all right," said the boy. "It's my mother. She furnishes the capital and I the experience."

LEAGUE HELD WARM MEETING

Personalities and Politics Get Mixed with Municipal Ownership

ORGANIZATION IS PERFECTED

Large Number Present and Much Enthusiasm is Manifested

The meeting of the municipal league last night was largely attended, and while there was no business transacted further than to make the temporary organization permanent and to elect Edward Crust vice president, the meeting was lively from start to finish.

After reading the proposed by-laws and having them signed by all desiring to become members, Rev. H. W. Knowles, who was present, was asked to address those present. He did so, and in the course of his remarks alluded to the alleged unexplained loss of current in the present management of the electric light plant. This brought Alderman Halladay, chairman of the electric light committee of the city council, to his feet. Mr. Halladay explained that there was no way to check up and ascertain the loss unless everything was put on meter rates, and incidentally got in a body blow on the reverend gentleman by mentioning the loss occasioned by the nominal flat rate given the churches and Y. M. C. A., library and other semi-public institutions, also the incandescent lamps used in lighting bridges, etc.

Dr. Camp declared that the system of book keeping, or lack of system in city affairs was the reason of inability to check up the plant.

In Mr. Knowles' remarks he had alluded to the betrayal of the city in the purchase of a water plant, and W. D. McKay arose to correct the gentleman and stated that it was the purchase of the electric light plant to which Mr. Knowles intended to refer. Mr. McKay added that that deal was a disgrace to the city and one which people were striving to forget.

W. R. Heron announced that the league was not organized to force municipal ownership on the people, but rather arrive at the truth, and that as several members of the Commercial club committee were present they would like to hear from them. Senator Frater was also called for. He responded and stated that he was not on that committee, and had come to the league and had joined in order to learn not only what the people wanted, but what was the best for the city.

W. D. McKay, Werner Hemstead and J. M. Elder spoke briefly, all declaring themselves in favor of municipal ownership, but giving their reasons for believing it better for the city to give Mr. Tighe a franchise with a purchase clause than to continue for at least three years under the present service. Dr. Hemstead stated that in his opinion it would be essential to get a new charter providing for a board of public works as one of the first things to be done. That further legislation would at least be needed.

Alderman Twohey, in remarks in which he said that the man who paid rent was a tax payer as much as the man who owned the property, also intimated that if Brainerd had not been betrayed by her representatives.

This brought Senator Frater to the front who said that he was glad to be thus given a chance to face the charges made in a city paper by someone who had not the courage to sign his name to the article. He gave the history of the bill from its inception until it was killed by Governor Johnson. He showed to the satisfaction of nearly all present that he had stood up for the real interests of Brainerd and had kept his word in all things.

Dr. Werner Hemstead, who was Mr. Frater's opponent at the late election, told of the occurrences in connection with submitting changes to the council and Commercial club and stated that Senator Frater had lived up to the spirit and letter of his promises.

At the close of his statement Senator Frater announced that he was a candidate for re-election and asked the suffragettes of the people standing squarely on his record. He was accorded hearty applause.

F. M. COOK

IS DEAD

Dies at St. Joseph's Hospital
Early this Morning of Stomach Trouble

WAS VERY WELL KNOWN HERE

Funeral Details not yet Decided Upon, but will Probably Be Tuesday

The community was shocked this morning by the word that Frank Cook, the very well known insurance man and school teacher was dead. It was only a couple of weeks ago that he was on the streets apparently in the best of health and few knew even that he was sick. It was only within a few hours that he was considered at all dangerous and he was taken to St. Joseph's hospital last night. Death ensued at about 5 o'clock this morning. Mr. Cook had been teaching this winter in District No. 4, Oak Lawn and was considered one of the best teachers in the county. His widow is almost prostrated by the blow. Arrangements for the funeral are not yet completed as they have notified his brothers in the south part of the state and await their reply. Mr. Cook was a member of the Odd Fellows and of the Yeoman. The former order will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

TO OBTAIN ASSISTANCE.

New York State Lodge of Workmen to Appeal to Supreme Lodge.

Syracuse, N. Y., Feb. 17.—With a surplus of but $29,000 and with a pecuniary claim amounting $766,410, the New York state craft lodge officers of the Ancient Order of United Workmen are preparing to appeal to the supreme lodge for relief. In the greatest crisis in the history of the organization.

Grand Trustee F. B. Garrett and Grand Master Workmen August Steinbecker of this city are making efforts to secure the necessary assistance, which it is claimed is due from the supreme lodge, in order to protect them.

Identification For Warships.

The German admiralty has resolved upon furnishing ships of war with means of recognizing each other's identity at distances too great for reading the name of the vessel, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer. This is to be effected by the use of rings or bands on the chimney stack, differing in number and color. The color used will be black, white, red and yellow. According to several liberal German journals, the ships of the opposing squadrons frequently mistook a friend for an enemy during the recent maneuvers owing to the absence of any means of identification.

CROWE IS ACQUITTED

JURY AT OMAHA DECIDES HE IS NOT GUILTY OF ROBBING EDWARD A. CUDAHY.

IN JAIL AT COUNCIL BLUFFS

ALLEGED BANDIT WILL BE TRIED FOR COMPLICITY IN STREET CAR ROBBERY THERE.

Omaha, Feb. 17.—The jury in the trial of Pat Crowe, charged with the robbery of Edward A. Cudahy, the Omaha packer, of $25,000 in connection with the kidnapping of the latter's son five years ago, after fifteen hours' deliberation, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

The kidnapping of Eddie Cudahy, Dec. 19, 1900, and his release upon the payment by his father of $25,000 ransom, created a sensation and the search for the kidnappers was stimulated at the time by the offer of a reward of $25,000 by Mr. Cudahy.

It was the belief of the authorities that Crowe and James Callahan were the guilty persons but no trace of them could be found until about a year ago, when Callahan was arrested. He was identified by young Cudahy as one of his captors but released, as it could not be shown that he received any of the money and there was at that time no law making the kidnapping of a person more than ten years of age a crime. Last October Crowe was arrested in Butte, Mont., and the trial began Feb. 7. There was no evidence positively to identify Crowe as one of the kidnappers. Crowe was recently indicted in Council Bluffs with others, on a charge of holding up a street car.

ENTIRE FAMILY MURDERED.

SPRING TRADE IN DRY GOODS.
Continues to Show Expansion Despite Winter Conditions.

New York, Feb. 17.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade says spring trade in dry goods, clothing and shoes and millinery continues to show expansion despite the presence of winter conditions. Interruption from this source in fact has been less than anticipated and shipments of goods on old orders and preparations for house trade at leading centers go on unchecked. Retail trade has been appreciably helped by the weather, but considerable stock will unquestionably be carried over because reorder business has been heavy, owing to mild weather earlier in the season. The effect of this carry-over on next fall and winter demands remains to be seen. Other developments have been generally favorable. Concessions in pig iron have brought out some new business, West and South. Leading interests are reported with practically full books, but deliveries in some lines are freer and high premiums are said to be disappearing, except where small, quick delivery orders can be filled from stock. Building material was apparently never so active as at this season, lumber leading and the output in Northern forests has been helped by recent heavy snows. Common brick will be reduced in the West on March 1, but is still firm at the East. Coal feels the influence of cold weather and strike talk in firmer prices and enlarged demand.

Entire Family Murdered.

Four Persons Killed and Their Bodies Cremated.

Sydney, C. B., Feb. 17.—In the ruins of a fire, which the authorities believe was set deliberately to conceal the work of a murderer, the charred bodies of Antoine Stettka, his wife and two children were found during the day near Dominion coal mine, ten miles from Sydney. The skulls of the children appear to have been crushed. The skull of the man was found some distance from the body, as if the head had been severed.

As soon as the bodies were taken out of the debris, a jury was impaneled by Coroner Phalen and an inquest was begun. The theory which the authorities are understood to hold is that the four members of the Stettka household were killed with an axe, possibly while they slept and that the murderer afterwards set fire to the house and departed. There is no clue to the murderer.

Over Forty Persons Hurt.

Columbia, Mo., Feb. 17.—Several persons were injured by the derailment near here at night of the Washash accommodation train, which runs between here and Centralia, Mo. Dr. A. Ross Hill of the state university, Dr. A. K. Fairchild, assistant professor of English, and about forty passengers received minor injuries.

DEMANDS OF THE MINERS.

Considered in Detail by a Sub-Committee of Seven.

New York, Feb. 17.—The demands the anthracite miners are to present to the operators were considered at an all day session of the sub-committee of seven appointed by the miners Thursday. No statement was made as to the details considered, nor was any intimation given as to the time the miners will require to properly frame their case. The operators remained inactive during the day. The two sub-committees will consider every detail of the problems affecting the anthracite industry before the full conference of miners and operators is again convened.

John Mitchell would not discuss the embroil in the Pittsburg district. The action of the convention there in declaring the presidency and vice presidency of the district vacant brought no comment from Mr. Mitchell for publication. He was in constant communication with the district leaders at Pittsburg, however, and declared that any part he might take in the dispute would be made public there.

ONE KILLED AND THREE HURT.

Old House Crumbles Into Debris While Being Raised.

Asheville, N. C., Feb. 17.—Mr. T. J. Revell, aged forty-nine, a merchant, was instantly killed and three others were seriously injured by the collapsing of the Revell home on Central avenue during the afternoon. The house was being raised fourteen feet to place it on a level with the street. It was very old and crumbled into debris when a lifting jack was removed. The injured are:

L. J. Wilson, skull injured; J. J. Prescott, rib broken and hip injured; Gus Williams, head and shoulders badly bruised.

JAMES W. ALEXANDER ILL.

Former President of the Equitable in a Serious Condition.

New York, Feb. 17.—James W. Alexander, former president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, is seriously ill in his home, No. 4 East Sixty-fourth street.

His family is with him, and Dr. C. H. Chetwood is in attendance. Mr. Alexander underwent a surgical operation on Thursday afternoon, after being removed to his home from a sanitarium in Deerfield, Mass., on Wednesday afternoon. His physicians hope for his recovery. He is supposed to be suffering from an affection of the kidneys.
